

LACO

The London Arte Chamber Orchestra is determined to bring young talent to the forefront, giving more opportunities than any other orchestra in the UK; with our extensive education programmes including workshops, performances and even competitions to find the best new composers that Britain has to offer and giving them their moment in the spotlight. The orchestra also puts special emphasis on showcasing our versatility, with past work including film compositions, traditional concerts and even a West End musical.

2013 Season

2013 promises to be an exciting year for LACO as we prepare for our busiest season yet, with more concerts planned than ever before. Some of the highlights include:

- Tchaikovsky No.2
- Brahms Symphony No.1
- Original Compositions
- A Night of Film Music
- Highlights of Opera
- Sibelius No.2
- The International Series
- Tour to China
